USSD No. 09-CV-2371 IEG (BGS)

JOINT MOTION FOR A PROTECTIVE ORDER

25
26 WHEREAS, the parties believe that discovery in the above-captioned matter will 27 involve the production of documents, material or information, containing private, 28 confidential information about individuals who are not parties to this action and whose

1 personal information was provided to Defendants with the intention that it remain 2 confidential;

3 WHEREAS, in light of the foregoing, the parties hereto wish to establish 4 procedures to limit the necessity for objections or subsequent motions seeking to limit 5 discovery, and facilitate the disposition by the Court of disputes or problems that may 6 arise in connection with discovery herein;

7 IT IS STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between the parties through their 8 respective counsel that:

9 I. DEFINITIONS.

10 The following definitions shall apply to this Stipulated Protective Order:

11 1. The "Litigation" shall refer to the above-captioned matter.

12 2. "Documents" shall mean all written records, electronically stored 13 information, or graphical material whatsoever including, without limitation, any 14 meaning reasonably given to that term in any written request for production of 15 documents served by any Party herein.

16 3. "Confidential Information" shall mean:

17 (a) Any document, material or thing which any Producing Party (as 18 defined herein) designates as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes 19 Only" in the manner set forth in this Stipulated Protective Order. Confidential 20 Information may be found in, without limitation, documents in written or 21 electronic form, answers to interrogatories, requests for admissions, transcribed 22 deposition and other oral testimony, and any portions of such documents which 23 may be attached as exhibits to any motions or other court filings, or introduced as 24 exhibits in any pretrial proceeding;

25 (b) All documents, information or materials designated "Confidential"
26 or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" in accordance with this Stipulated 27 Protective Order by any Party to this Litigation or by any Producing Party, shall 28 be treated as Confidential Information pursuant to this Stipulated Protective

1 Order. However, by agreeing to this Stipulated Protective Order, no Party waives 2 the right to challenge any other Party's designation of any document or other 3 material as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only";

4 c) A document may be designated "Confidential" when it is, or 5 contains, information which that Party or witness believes in good faith is or 6 would be subject to protection under the provisions of the California 7 Constitution, Article I, Section 1 or analogous federal statutory or other legal 8 provisions; and

9 4. "Producing Party" shall mean any Party to the Litigation producing 10 documents, information or other materials in the Litigation or any other person or entity 11 producing documents, information or other materials in the Litigation who agrees to be 12 bound by the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order.

13 5. "Legend" as used herein shall mean a stamp or similar insignia stating 14 "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" as appropriate. When any 15 document is designated "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" 16 pursuant to this Stipulated Protective Order, the Legend shall be affixed to all pages of 17 such document to which the designation applies. The "Confidential" or "Confidential – 18 Attorney's Eyes Only" designations shall be deemed to apply to the documents 19 themselves and to information contained therein, other than information which is 20 otherwise available from non-confidential sources.

21 6. When reference is made in this Stipulated Protective Order to any 22 document or Party, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the 23 singular.

24 II. LIMITATION ON USE.

25 All Confidential Information produced in this case may be used only for purposes 26 of this Litigation. Confidential Information may not be used for any other purpose 27 including, without limitation, any business or commercial purpose, except by consent of 28 the Producing Party.

1 Confidential Information that is designated "Confidential" and any summaries, 2 charts or notes made therefrom, and any facts or information contained therein or 3 derived therefrom and from no other source other than information which is otherwise 4 available from non-confidential sources shall be disclosed only to the extent necessary 5 for the prosecution and/or defense of the Litigation and only to:

6 1. Counsel of record in the Litigation, paralegals, legal assistants, secretarial 7 and clerical employees of such counsel, including outside copy services, who have a 8 reasonable need to review the information in connection with the Litigation;

9 2. Independent experts or consultants who are employed or retained by, or 10 consulted about retention on behalf of, any of the parties or counsel of record in the 11 Litigation for the parties hereto to assist in preparation of the Litigation provided that 12 such third party has signed an undertaking in the form of Exhibit "A" hereto.

13 3. Stenographic reporters who are involved in depositions or any hearings or 14 proceedings in the Litigation; and 15 4. The Court and any persons employed by the Court whose duties require 16 access to Confidential Information; and 17 5. The officers, directors, or agents of a Party who are primarily responsible 18 for the Litigation and who shall be designated in writing by the Party prior to any 19 disclosure of "Confidential" Information to such person.

20 Confidential Information that is designated "Confidential" or "Confidential – 21 Attorney's Eyes Only" and any summaries, charts or notes made therefrom, and any 22 facts or information contained therein and derived therefrom other than information 23 which is otherwise available from non-confidential sources, shall be disclosed only to 24 the extent necessary for the prosecution and/or defense of this Litigation and only to 25 persons listed in paragraphs 1, 2, 3, and 4 above.

26 All persons as described in paragraph 2 above to whom Confidential Information 27 is disclosed shall be advised of this Stipulated Protective Order and shall agree to be 28 bound by it. Prior to receiving any Confidential Information, each person as described

1 in paragraph 2 above shall be provided with a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order
2 and shall execute a non-disclosure agreement in the form of Exhibit "A," as well as a 3 resume or statement of qualifications of such person. No "Confidential" or 4 "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" material will be disclosed to such person if, 5 within seven (7) days after service of the signed undertaking, counsel receiving the 6 signed undertaking serves a Notice of Objection to disclosure of "Confidential" or 7 "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" material to such person setting forth each 8 objection and the basis for such. The parties agree that they will only interpose good 9 faith objections. If no Notice of Objection is made within the seven (7) day period, 10 "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" material may thereafter be 11 disclosed to such person. If a Notice of Objection is made within seven (7) days, the 12 parties agree to use a good faith effort to overcome the Notice of Objection. If the 13 parties cannot resolve the objections, "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes 14 Only" material will not be disclosed to the person, except upon order of the Court. The 15 parties agree, if at all possible, to seek a prompt telephone conference with the Court for 16 the purpose of resolving the question of disclosure.

17 III. MANNER OR MEANS OF DESIGNATION.

18 A Producing Party may designate any Document or portion thereof which 19 contains "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" pursuant to this 20 Stipulated Protective Order by affixing the Legend as provided under paragraph I.5 to 21 any document containing, or which the Producing Party believes contains, Confidential 22 Information. The ability to designate documents as "Confidential" or "Confidential – 23 Attorney's Eyes Only" under this Stipulated Protective Order is not dependent in any 24 way on the Producing Party's assertion of objections in response to discovery requests 25 or demands and shall not be limited in any way by the failure to assert objections. If, 26 through inadvertence, a Producing Party produces any document or portion thereof 27 which contains Confidential Information but fails to designate the document as 28 "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only," the Producing Party may

1 subsequently designate the document as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's 2 Eyes Only" as long as it does so within a reasonable time upon discovery of its 3 inadvertent failure to designate such documents.

4 IV. DESIGNATION OF TRANSCRIPTS.

5 1. In the case of Confidential Information revealed during a deposition or 6 hearing, if designation of a portion of a transcript, including exhibits, is made by a 7 statement by counsel to that effect on the record, or is otherwise made before the 8 stenographer transcribing such depositions has disseminated to counsel for the parties 9 the transcript of the deposition, the stenographer shall affix the Legend to the cover 10 page and all appropriate pages of the transcript, and to each copy thereof.

11 2. In the case of "Confidential-Attorney's Eyes Only" information revealed 12 during a deposition or hearing, if designation of a portion of the transcript, including 13 exhibits, is made by a statement of counsel to that effect on the record, or is otherwise 14 made before the stenographer transcribing such depositions has disseminated to counsel 15 for the parties the transcript of the deposition, the stenographer shall affix the Legend to 16 the cover page and all appropriate pages of the transcript, and to each copy thereof.

17 At any deposition or hearing during which "Confidential – Attorneys Eyes Only" 18 information is disclosed, Party representatives shall be excluded from the hearing or 19 deposition.

20 If a deposition or hearing transcript has not previously been designated 21 "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" prior to its preparation by the 22 stenographer, counsel for a Party may alternatively designate a deposition or hearing 23 transcript or a portion thereof, disclosing, containing or referring to any Confidential 24 Information hereunder as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" by 25 informing counsel for all other parties to this action in writing within fifteen (15) days 26 after receipt of the transcript (or such other time as may be agreed), as to the specific 27 pages so deemed, and thereafter such pages shall constitute Confidential Information

28 ///

1 pursuant to this Stipulated Protective Order. Upon receipt of such notice, any Party in 2 possession of copies of such designated transcript shall affix the Legend thereto.

3 V. COPIES.

4 All copies of any documents containing Confidential Information shall also 5 constitute and be treated as Confidential Information as provided in this Stipulated 6 Protective Order. Any person making, or causing to be made, copies of any 7 Confidential Information shall make certain that each such copy bears the Legend 8 pursuant to the requirements of this Stipulated Protective Order.

9 VI. LODGING UNDER SEAL.

10 In the event a Party wishes to file with the Court any Confidential Information 11 material, the material shall be submitted under seal pursuant to the appropriate rules of 12 court. No document shall be filed under seal unless counsel secures a court order 13 allowing the filing under seal. An application to file a document under seal shall be 14 served on opposing counsel, and on the person or entity that has custody and control of 15 the document, if different from counsel. If counsel or the custodian wishes to oppose 16 the application, he or she must contact the chambers of the judge who will rule on the 17 application to notify the judge's staff that an opposition to the application will be filed.

18 VII. EFFECT OF DESIGNATION.

19 Unless and until otherwise ordered by the Court, or otherwise agreed by the 20 Parties, all documents and other discovery material designated "Confidential" or 21 "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" shall be treated as Confidential Information 22 under this Stipulated Protective Order.

23 VIII. OBJECTIONS TO DESIGNATION.

24 Any Party (the "Requesting Party") may at any time request in writing that any 25 information or document designated as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's 26 Eyes Only" be released from the requirements of this Stipulated Protective Order, and, 27 unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Producing Party shall meet and confer with the 28 Requesting Party within ten (10) days of receipt of a written request. If an agreement

1 cannot be reached by negotiation and the Court has not provided for a different 2 procedure to handle such disputes, then the Requesting Party may make an application 3 within fifteen (15) days of the meet and confer or at such other time as the designating 4 and challenging Parties may agree, for a ruling from the Court to remove the 5 "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" designation from such 6 information or document. In the event that such application is made, any relevant 7 information or document can be submitted to the Court under seal for the Court's 8 review, and the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order shall continue to apply to such 9 information or document until the Court rules on the application. However, a Party 10 who does not challenge a Producing Party's designation of a document as 11 "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" shall not be deemed to have 12 made any independent determination as to whether the designation is appropriate.
13 Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the Court's ruling that any Confidential 14 Information is not properly designated as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's 15 Eyes Only" shall not affect any other Confidential Information so designated. The 16 above procedure shall not preclude application to the Court on a more expedited basis 17 as circumstances warrant.

18 IX. EVIDENTIARY OBJECTIONS NOT WAIVED.

19 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all objections as to 20 the admissibility in evidence of the material subject to this Stipulated Protective Order 21 are reserved and are not waived by any terms of this Stipulated Protective Order.

22 X. SUBPOENA OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

23 If at any time any Confidential Information protected by this Stipulated 24 Protective Order is subpoenaed from a litigant by any court, administrative or 25 legislative body, or is formally requested by any person or entity other than a litigant 26 purporting to have authority to require the production of such information, the Party to 27 whom the subpoena or other request is directed shall immediately give written notice 28 thereof to any Producing Party which has designated such information "Confidential" or 1 "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" so as to advise such person of the need to 2 promptly obtain a protective order or a notice to quash the subpoena. The production of 3 Confidential Information by a third party shall not operate as a waiver of or otherwise 4 limit the protections afforded to Documents which are subject to this Stipulated 5 Protective Order.

6 XI. CONTINUATION OF PROTECTION AFTER DISPOSITION.

7 1. The termination of proceedings in the Litigation shall not relieve the 8 parties from the obligation of maintaining the confidentiality of all Confidential 9 Information produced and designated pursuant to this Stipulated Protective Order, 10 unless otherwise ordered by the Court or stipulated in writing by all parties to this 11 Stipulated Protective Order.

12 2. Within sixty (60) days after the final disposition of the Litigation by 13 settlement or by final judgment not subject to any further appeal, the attorneys for the 14 parties shall, either (a) return promptly to the Producing Party from whom it was 15 obtained any document that has been designated "Confidential" or "Confidential – 16 Attorney's Eyes Only" and all copies thereof; or (b) destroy all documents that have 17 been designated "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorney's Eyes Only" and copies 18 thereof, and to provide a certification of the steps taken to that effect, as requested by 19 the Producing Party or as agreed upon by the parties. Within that time, counsel shall 20 provide each Producing Party a declaration stating that all Confidential Information in 21 their or their client's possession, including copies or summaries thereof, have been 22 returned or destroyed. Notwithstanding this provision, the parties to the Litigation may 23 keep a complete set of deposition transcripts, all documents filed or lodged with the 24 Court, which may include documents designated "Confidential" or "Confidential – 25 Attorney's Eyes Only" and any attorney work product, provided that such information is 26 stored in a manner so as to preserve its confidentiality.

27 3. Any action by the court for return or destruction of documents filed under 28 seal shall be preceded by an ex parte motion for an order authorizing the return or

1 destruction of the documents. If no such motion is made by any party within sixty (60) 2 days after completion of the proceedings before the trial court for which documents are 3 filed under seal, the trial court is authorized to destroy the documents.

4 XII. MODIFICATIONS TO THIS ORDER.

5 This Stipulated Protective Order may be modified by written stipulation signed 6 by all parties, or by counsel for all parties, or by Court order on the Court's own motion 7 made for good cause or in the interest of justice. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective 8 Order shall prohibit a Party from seeking or receiving further or lesser protection of 9 Confidential Information by stipulation, by application to the Court upon notice, or 10 upon other Order seeking other or additional protective orders.

11 XIII. OTHER PROVISIONS.

12 1. Neither the taking of any action in accordance with the provision of this 13 Protective Order, nor the failure to object hereto, shall be construed as a waiver of any 14 claim or defense in the action. This Protective Order shall not be construed as a waiver 15 of any right to object to the furnishing of information in response to discovery and, 16 except as expressly provided, shall not relieve any Party or witness of the obligation to 17 produce information sought in the course of discovery. This Stipulation does not and 18 cannot change, amend or circumvent any court rule or local rule without a separate 19 court order.

20 2. By executing this order, the Parties agree to be bound by its terms, as of 21 the date of execution, regardless of when, or if, this order is signed by the Court.

22 3. The Court may impose any sanction for violations of this Stipulated 23 Protective Order which it is empowered to impose for violations of its orders generally.

EXHIBIT A

I hereby certify that I have carefully read and understand the Joint Motion for Protective Order in the action entitled Edward Peruta, et al. v. County of San Diego, et al., Southern District of California Case No. 09-CV-2371. I agree to use Confidential Information only in connection with this action and not for any purpose including, without limitation, personal use, business, competitive or governmental purpose or function. I understand that my use of any and all documents, information and materials in these litigations are governed by the terms and conditions of the Joint Motion and Order and I hereby certify that I will comply fully with those terms and conditions where applicable. I understand that my failure to do so may be punishable as contempt by the Court. I hereby consent to be subject to the personal jurisdiction of the above-referenced Court, with respect to any proceedings relative to the enforcement of the Order.
